Dear Mr. Brownstein:

I have not as yet received a response from you or from anyone on behalf of the court relative to the inquiries set forth in my hand-delivered January 28, 1994 letter.

For your convenience, an additional copy is enclosed herewith.

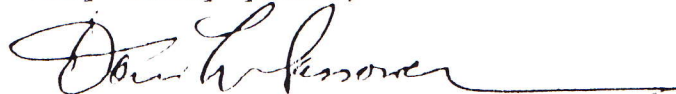

Your expeditious response is most essential, particularly to Question #2 which requested:

"the rulemaking history connected with adoption of 22 NYCRR 691.4 and all revisions thereto, if any";

and Question #3 which requested:

"any written procedures relating to adoption of rules by the Appellate Division, Second Dept. not necessarily limited to the disciplinary rules".

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Sassower:

In response to your inquiries dated January 28, and February 10, 1994, I again advise you that it is not the practice of this Court to reveal the addresses of members of the Grievance Committees.

With respect to your remaining inquiries, I refer you to the "Historical Note" section following each of the Court Rules in 22 NYCRR § 691. There is no further information available regarding written procedures or rule making history.

Very truly yours,
