Dear Eric –

I don't know whether to be relieved, or distressed, that you had not received the below – and that it might have gone to junk-mail. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. Please review and forward to ALL Green Party members.

Let's speak tomorrow.

Thank kyou.

TO: Eric Jones/Treasurer – New York State Green Party

Following up our phone conversation this afternoon – for which I thank you – this is to reiterate that the New York State Green Party has a TREMENDOUS opportunity to benefit itself and the People of the State of New York by calling a press conference to announce that the 2018 electoral races are ALL COMPETITIVE because Governor Cuomo, Attorney General Schneiderman, Comptroller DiNapoli, and most, if not ALL, incumbent state Senate and Assembly members must be indicted for corruption, based on EVIDENCE that is prima facie and ROCK-SOLID.

Below is my January 17, 2018 e-mail to Libertarian Party gubernatorial candidate Larry Sharpe on the subject – with a chain of explicating e-mails beneath and my summarizing AUGUST 10, 2017 OPEN LETTER about the EVIDENCE attached.

As discussed, please IMMEDIATELY forward it to ALL Green Party state committee members for review – so that EACH can make his/her own determination as to the significance of the referred-to and linked EVIDENCE – and how best to proceed. This would reasonably include joining forces with the Libertarian Party, at a press conference, to “blow the whistle” about the EVIDENCE – and to demand ANSWERS from the incumbent public officers and investigations and
