I filed a similar lawsuit back in the early 80s when I was working for Ralph Nader against a pay raise for state legislators and judges which was approved in a lame duck session in violation of state constitution. First time it was ever done.

Took the case all the way to the state Court of Appeals. I lost. 7-0. The attorney who handled the case for the State Attorney General still can't believe that I lost - he was convinced.

We are aware of how crooked the legislative and judicial process is.

Good luck in your efforts

Mark

Subject: FOR FORWARDING TO GREEN PARTY CANDIDATE HOWIE HAWKINS & THE GREEN PARTY: Behind-the-scenes of today's attorney general debate -- relevant to the gubernatorial and comptroller races

TO: Michael O'Neil, Campaign Manager/Green Party – Howard Hawkins Gubernatorial Campaign

On October 24th, upon discovering the announcement of the November 1st League of Women Voters gubernatorial debate in which Green Party gubernatorial candidate Hawkins – a NON-LAWYER -- would be participating, I called the phone number appearing on his gubernatorial website, 917-825-3562 -- to speak with candidate Hawkins. You answered the phone -- and when I asked you whether you were aware of my outreach to the Green Party, spanning more than a year, endeavoring to help it understand that it could WIN this year's statewide races and defeat the two-party duopoly based on EVIDENCE laid out by an unfolding citizen-taxpayer action challenging the state budget and the judicial pay raises, you stated you vaguely were. So that there would be no question about whether you were, you went on CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, as we spoke -- and I showed you the relevant webpage pertaining to Governor Cuomo: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/elections/2018/cuomo.htm> -- with a MOUNTAIN of primary-source EVIDENCE there posted, including for the citizen-taxpayer action unfolding at the Appellate Division, Third Department. I told you that, MONTHS EARLIER, I had furnished the appeal brief and three-volume record on appeal to Green Party attorney general candidate Michael Sussman AND Green Party comptroller candidate Mark Dunlea, BOTH LAWYERS -- and that right before calling you, I had left messages for each of them, about the November 1st gubernatorial debate, requesting that they IMMEDIATELY report to candidate Hawkins and the Green Party as to its significance in knocking out incumbents Cuomo, DiNapoli -- and opening up the gubernatorial and comptroller races -- and the races for legislative seats. I told you that the League of Women Voters had its own copy of the appeal brief and
