Subject: You can win, easily & without money, NY's 111th Assembly seat. All it takes is "whistle-blowing"

Dear Candidate DeLorenzo,

I am director & co-founder of the non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), based in White Plains, New York. You can win your Conservative Party primary for New York's 111th Assembly seat, easily and without money – and the general election. All it takes is "whistle-blowing" from the bully-pulpit of your candidacy. Please call me for details – and the EVIDENCE that backs it up, accessible from CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org.

On the assumption that you are not yet familiar with Article VII, §§1-7 of the New York State Constitution pertaining to the fashioning and enactment of the state budget, here it is: <https://codes.findlaw.com/ny/constitution-of-the-state-of-new-york/#!tid=N9A526E8102AB49058F336F851D9B3DA7>. I'd like to begin our conversation by discussing it.

I look forward to hearing from you soon – and not only because you are a lawyer with a law degree from Pace Law School, just around the block from where I live, but because you have a B.S. in Finance. There is much I wish to show you about the Legislature's own budget – and the independent audits of its internal controls required every three years.

Thank you.
