TO: Working Families Party-New York State Director Sochie Nnaemeka

This follows up my telephone messages to Working Families Party (718- 222-3796) on April 14th and April 15th , requesting to speak with you concerning the heightened ballot access requirements for political parties, enacted via the FY2020-21 state budget, that will likely eliminate Working Families Party from the ballot. Inasmuch as news articles had quoted you on the subject, including about a legal challenge that you predicted Working Families Party would win, just as it had won its challenge to the Public Campaign Financing and Election Commission, I hoped for a prompt return call. Indeed, I stated that I had helpful information to provide for such upcoming lawsuit and inquired as to who your attorney(s) would be, in light of the death of Richard Brodsky, Esq., who had represented you in the lawsuit against the Public Campaign Financing and Election Commission.

Perhaps you did not get the messages. However, I received no return call from anyone else at Working Families Party.

Below is the e-mail I sent two days ago to New York's six ballot-qualified third parties – Working Families Party, among them. As no e-mail address for you is posted on the Working Families Party website, <https://workingfamilies.org/states/new-york/>, I sent the e-mail to the only posted e-mail address that seemed remotely relevant: reply@workingfamilies.org – and, additionally, to the e-mail address for Deputy Director Dahlia McManus— which I had, from two years ago. I also sent the e-mail to Zephyr Teachout, Esq., to whom I believed the Working Families Party might turn for advice and/or representation in the upcoming lawsuit. I have received no response.

About 2-1/2 hours ago, I followed-up with yet two more voice mail messages, including at the x217 extension for “Press Inquiries”: <https://workingfamilies.org/states/new-york/?sec=contact>. On a guess that your e-mail is – like that of your “Press Inquiries” person, Joe Dinkin, and of your person for “inquiries about our questionnaire or endorsement in 2019”, Daniel Langenbucher, and of Ms. McManus -- your first initial, your last name, and then workingfamilies.org, I am sending this e-mail to that surmised address.

I look forward to speaking with you, directly.

Thank you.

Subject: GOOD NEWS FOR NY's THIRD PARTIES: You can EASILY challenge -- & win -- a lawsuit throwing out Part ZZZ of Budget Bill #S.7508-B/A.9508-B as UNCONSTITUTIONAL

TO: NEW YORK'S THIRD PARTIES WITH BALLOT LINES

Serve America Movement Party
Working Families Party
Conservative Party
Green Party
Libertarian Party
Independence Party

As you know, the “force of law” recommendations of the Public Campaign Financing and Election Commission – which the Conservative and Working Families Parties succeeded in striking down in their two coordinated state court lawsuits – are now, nonetheless, “the law”, enacted by Part ZZZ of Budget Bill #S.7508-B/A.9508-B.

§10 of Part ZZZ imposes a significantly higher hurdle for parties to maintain their ballot lines – threatening the viability of each of you, except for the Conservative Party, which can seemingly meet its more rigorous qualification requirements. Yet because Part ZZZ contains a non-severability clause (§11), tying all sections together as an indivisible package, the Conservative Party would presumably join, if not lead, a lawsuit challenging Part ZZZ, so as to knock out its public campaign financing provisions, as it rightfully should.

THE GOOD NEWS, which is the purpose of this e-mail, is to advise you that it is a slam-dunk for you to bring and win a lawsuit throwing out Part ZZZ as unconstitutional, as the Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA) can provide you with the dispositive law and legal argument you need, based on the New York State Constitution. This includes:

(1) that Part ZZZ is policy legislation that could not be constitutionally included in Governor Cuomo’s executive budget – over and beyond its violation of Article VII, §6 because it pertains to no appropriation in the FY2020-21 budget and is not limited thereto;

(2) that Governor Cuomo’s so-called “Article VII” Budget Bill #S.7508-A/A.9508-B, allegedly for “Transportation, Economic Development, and Environmental Conservation” – into which Part ZZZ was inserted -- was itself unconstitutional;

(3) that the Governor Cuomo’s behind-closed-doors, “three-men-in-a-room” budget deal-making with Temporary Senate President Stewart-Cousins and Assembly Speaker Heastie, by which the Governor purported to “amend” his Article VII Bill #S.7508-A/A.9508-A, was unconstitutional;

(4) that the Legislature’s “passage” of the “amended” Article VII Bill #S.7508-B/A.9508-B was unconstitutional and rife with statutory and legislative rule violations.

EVEN BETTER, the law and legal argument that CJA is able to provide is all embodied in open-and-shut, substantiating evidence – whose accuracy is uncontested. As illustrative, CJA’s above-attached March 18, 2020 letter to Governor Cuomo, sent to him and Legislative Leaders by the below two e-mails. Entitled "GOOD NEWS DURING THE CORONAVIRUS EMERGENCY: You Can Chuck Six of Your Seven 'Article VII Bills' Because They are Unconstitutional. Here's why...", it analyzes the Governor’s “Article VII Bills” for FY2020-21 and does so in the context of the Court of Appeals’ seminal 2004 decision in Pataki v. Assembly/Silver v. Pataki, 4 NY3d 75, providing what appears to be the FIRST scholarship deconstructing its plurality, concurring, and dissenting opinions. As for CJA’s citizen-taxpayer actions suing Governor Cuomo and his “Partners in Government” for unconstitutionality, unlawfulness, and fraud with respect to the budget” - - to which the letter refers (at p. 2) – attached are the two cited causes of action (fn. 3) pertaining to the unconstitutionality of “three-men-in-a-room”, behind-closed-doors budget-deal-making, as unwritten and as applied.

CJA’s website, www.judgewatch.org, posts the evidence, in full. For your convenience, it is accessible from a webpage I created for this e-mail entitled “AGAIN, HELPING THE THIRD PARTIES, this time in a successful lawsuit to strike down Part ZZZ of Budget Bill #S.7508-B/A.9508-B as unconstitutional”. This is part of a series of CJA’s webpages for the 2020 Legislative Session, accessible from our homepage’s prominent center link: “LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS: Comparing NY’s Legislature BEFORE & AFTER its Fraudulent Pay Raise”. The direct link is here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2020-legislative/third-parties-good-news.htm>.

I look forward to discussing the foregoing with you, to answering your questions, and to working collaboratively on winning strategies, of nominal cost, based on law and evidence, benefiting ALL the People of the State of New York.

Needless to say, in this important 2020 election year when ALL New York’s 213 legislative seats are on the ballot, no third party should endorse or confer its valuable party line to legislative incumbents whose gross nonfeasance and misfeasance in the performance of official duties, beginning with the unconstitutionality of the FY2020-21 budget, gives rise to the lawsuit. Indeed, now, more than ever, the third parties have an opportunity to demonstrate their vital function by fielding candidates who will “blow the whistle” on the corruption of Democratic and Republican legislators, in collusion with each other. This “whistle-blowing” requires no “big bucks” or public campaign financing. It requires only that candidates honored by your party lines use the “bully-pulpits” they command by reason of their candidacies to alert voters to the self-dealing and posturing of the Democratic and Republican incumbents, as established by the evidence posted and accessible from CJA’s webpages for the 2020 Legislative Session: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2020-legislative/2020-session-menu.htm>. Suffice to say, there is nothing complex that the voters would not understand – and especially as to the larceny perpetrated by the Legislature’s own budget and the legislators’ own pay raises.

Thank you.
