Dear Mr. Vanderbilt:

As a Vanderbilt Associate of New York University Law School, I recently learned of your contemplated biography of your late grandfather.

It might be of interest to you to know that I worked as Judge Vanderbilt's Law Assistant from 1956 until his untimely death in June 1957. My work responsibilities embraced research and writing in connection with what he characterized was to be his "magnum opus", an Administrative History of the United States.

It occurs to me that you might benefit from discussion with me, and I would be pleased to make myself available for such purpose.

Good luck to you!

Sincerely,

DORIS L. SASSOWER
