Re: Judge A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr.
J.C. 91-06

Dear Sirs:

Rather than making a new §372 complaint, kindly consider this communication part of the petition for review.

1. Where I complain to [former] Chief Judge A. Leon Higginbotham, Jr., as I did on January 14, 1991, about misconduct, of a criminal magnitude, in the Office of Staff Attorney and the Clerk's Office, I expect (1) a response from His Honor, not Staff Attorney or the office complained about; (2) promptly, not more than two months later; and (3) a response which is a response, not an evasive meaningless letter from Marcia Waldron, Esq., Supervising Staff Attorney.

2. I expect a prompt candid, unevasive explanation concerning my decisive and unopposed motion of October 23, 1989 which was concealed by Paul Douglas Sisk, Esq. and never submitted to the panel (CCA No. 89-5810).

3. I expect expeditious decisions from the Court for my unopposed post-decision motions in 89-5810.

4. I expect that until the allegations of misconduct concerning the Mr. Sisk and the Office of Staff Attorney is resolved, that they will have no control, no input, no anything concerning any case in which I am involved, directly or indirectly.

I assume that Ms. Waldron will supply the Court will copies of the correspondence involved.

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
