Re: Presiding Justice Francis T. Murphy

Gentlemen:

Enclosed are copies of two (2) complaints to the Departmental Disciplinary Committee, both dated March 13, 1989, with the Committee's stamped acknowledgement of receipt.

The enclosed exhibits reveal that complaints against those having a favorable nexus with Presiding Justice Francis T. Murphy were destroyed during the tenure of Michael A. Gentile, Esq.

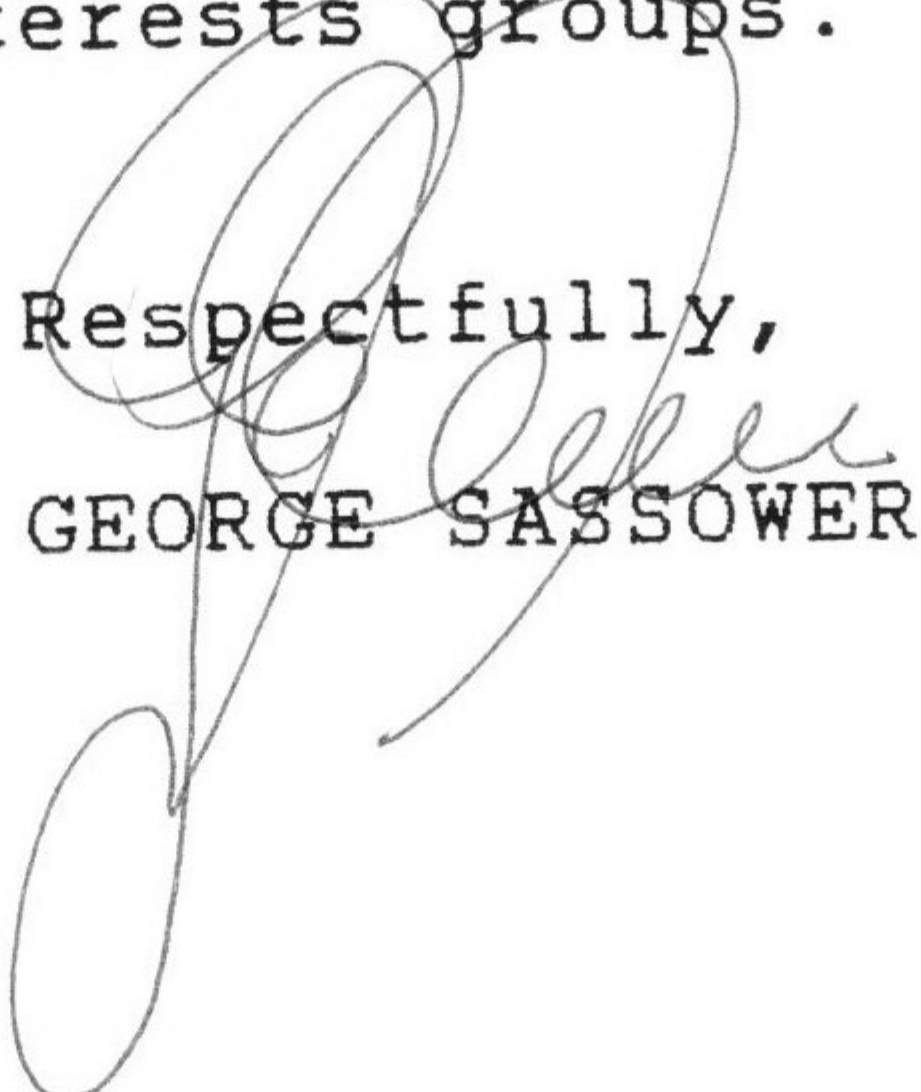

Instructively, such destruction of complaints continued even after Mr. Gentile became disassociated with the Grievance Committee.

Kreindler & Relkin, P.C. and Feltman, Karesh, Major & Farbman, Esqs., openly boast that they, with Citibank, N.A., control the judiciary, including the Presiding Justice -- boasts they seem confirmed by the within enclosures and other evidence.

In my case, as distinguished from all other cases, the disciplinary and other intrusions by the Presiding Justice were done personally.

To confirm the aforementioned statement, you need do little more than inquire of Associate Justice Isaac Rubin, a member of your Commission, or Presiding Justice Milton Mollen, concerning same.

Copies of the within, as well as my other evidence of judicial corruption and misconduct, has been turned over to the media and other public interests groups.

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
