Re: David B. Saxe
Associate Justice, Appellate Div. First Dept.

February 15, 2011

Sir:

1. Since 1985, David B. Saxe, then Acting NY Supreme Court Justice of New York County, now Associate Justice of the Appellate Division for the First Judicial Department, has been sued numerous times by me in the NY State & Federal Courts, always in his "personal capacity", and he was always defended in that capacity by the NY State Attorney General, at NY State cost & expense, despite the prohibition contained in Article XIII §7 of the New York State Constitution and Amendment XI of the Constitution of the Constitution of the United States (Hans v. Louisiana, 134 U.S. 1 [1890]).

Obviously, the NY State Attorney General was "cooking his books" to conceal the unconstitutional expenditures made, which a Freedom of Information Law request (see, FOIL #03-540) confirmed.

2. In addition to defrauding the State of New York, financially & otherwise, compelling him to reimburse the State of New York for the unconstitutional expenditures made on his behalf, and such unconstitutional defense representation, resulted in taxable income, which I believe David B. Saxe did not report to you, as legally required, or to the revenue authorities or payed the taxes due thereon.

3. In November 1983, Citibank, N.A. and its "estate chasing" attorneys, Kreindler & Relkin, P.C. ["K&R"] attempted to transmit an $170,000 "bribe" payment to Feltman, Karesh & Major, Esqs. ["FK&M"] & Rashba & Pokart ["R&P"] from the judicial trust assets of Puccini Clothes, Ltd. – "The Judicial Fortune Cookie" by "laundering" such monies through Acting Supreme Court Justice David B. Saxe.

$160,000 was to go to FK&M, the law firm of Lee Feltman, Esq., the court-appointed receiver for Puccini Clothes, Ltd., and was for their betrayal of client & trust resulting in a judgment-over against it in the approximate sum of $480,000 (see Barr v. Raffe, 97 A.D.2d 696, 468 N.Y.S.2d 332 [1st. Dept.-1983]).

$10,000 "bribe" was to go to R&P, the court-appointed investigatory accountants, who were supposed to investigate the activities of Citibank-K&R in their engineered larceny of the judicial trust assets of Puccini Clothes, Ltd.

Obviously, in view of NY Bus. Corp. Law §1217, Acting Supreme Court Justice David B. Saxe did not & could not file his mandatory NY Judiciary Law §39-a Statement with the Office of Court Administration!

My information was that part of the "kick-back" to David B. Saxe came in the form of a substantial gift as a "wedding present", which he probably also did not report.

Yours,

GEORGE SASSOWER
