Re: George Sassower #D-613

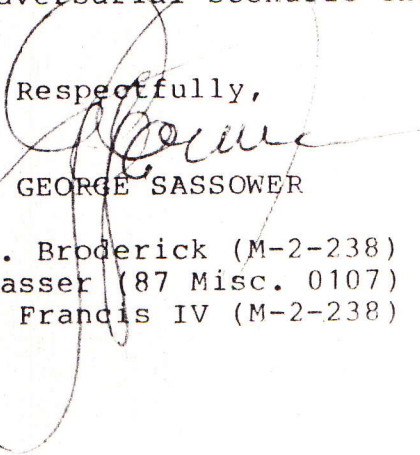

Honorable Sir:

1. At about 4:30 p.m. on Friday, May 8, 1987 (after I had prepared my Memorandum of Law), I was given a copy of the transcript of the disciplinary hearings by the Office of U.S. Magistrate JAMES C. FRANCIS IV.

2a. I now intend, within the next few days, to move for summary judgment before Hon. VINCENT L. BRODERICK, U.S.D.J., at the Southern District of New York, to discharge the rule to show cause in His Honor's Court.

b. The forum of Judge Broderick was selected for such motion because presently an adversarial scenario exists therein.

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
