

NOTICE

3/25/98

Draft → not for consideration unless DCS' 3/23/98 letter to Clerk George Longe is not accorded the identical response as was given to her 5/10/96 letter * (in connection with her 372(c) misconduct complaint vs. Jon Newman #96-8511) to wit; an additional 15 days as provided for under Rule 7(c) - which rule has remained unchanged since April 1, 1994 (see Rule 22)

In the event this Circuit does not comply with Rule 7(c) so as to afford DCS the identical rights she had two years ago under the identical rule, please provide the reason in writing - with the date such deviation from the rule took effect. Please include whether + when it was the subject of public notice + comment.

(P.S. if necessary you may consider DCS' 3/23/98 ltr + this notice as ambiguous pursuant to Rule 7(c))

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint
Docket No. 96-8511

Dear Mr. Lange:

Pursuant to Rules 5 and 6 of the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit Governing Complaints Against Judicial Officers under 28 U.S.C. §372(c), we hereby petition the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit for review of the April 11, 1996 Order of Acting Chief Judge Amalya Kearse, dismissing our judicial misconduct complaint against Chief Judge Jon O. Newman.

Under such Rule 6(e), we are required to provide "a brief statement of the reasons why the petitioner believes that the chief judge should not have dismissed the complaint...".

Because of time constraints and the press of other commitments, we have been unable to finalize the "brief statement" that we have drafted.

Rule 7(c) provides that where a timely petition is not in proper form, the Clerk will acknowledge receipt and an additional 15 days will be afforded.

Since the absence of such "brief statement" makes our timely petition for review not in proper form, we hereby seek the additional time available to us under Rule 7(c).

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

Re: Judicial Conduct Complaint
Docket No. 96-8511

Dear Ms. Sassower:

We hereby acknowledge receipt of your petition for review, dated May 10, 1996, received in this office on May 10, 1996.

Pursuant to Rule 6(e) of the Rules of the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit Governing Complaints Against Judicial Officers Under 28 U.S.C. Section 372(c) the petition is not in proper form in that it fails to state the reasons why the petitioners believe the complaint should have not been dismissed.

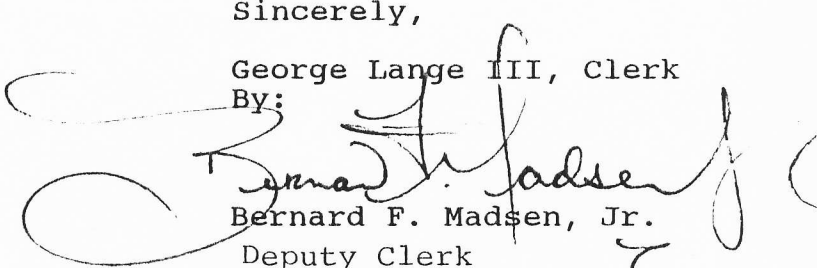

You are hereby advised pursuant to Rule 7(c) of the Rules of the Judicial Council of the Second Circuit Governing Complaints Against Judicial Officers Under 28 U.S.C. Section 372(c) that you have 15 days from the date of this letter to comply with Rule 6(e) and submit a brief statement of grounds for the petition for review.

Failure to comply on or before May 30, 1996 will result in the rejection of this petition.

Sincerely,

George Lange III, Clerk
