RE: Specifications of Objections to Conservative Party Designating Petition naming Terry Jane Ruderman as candidate for Judge of the Family Court

Dear Mr. Lewis:

Please be advised that the Board of Elections, having reviewed the above referenced Specifications of Objections filed by you on July 13, 1991, has determined as set forth hereinbelow.

Objections Sustained

Previously signed another Petition	2
Town or City listed incorrectly	11
Incorrect Election District	2
No Ward or Election District listed	5
Witnessed Own Signature	1
Other - No date	1
Statement of Witness Defective	55
TOTAL OBJECTIONS SUSTAINED	77

Ex "A"

The petition as filed contained 516 signatures. The number of signatures required was 454. Since 77 specific objections were sustained leaving only 439 valid signatures remaining, the petition is found to contain an insufficient number of valid signatures and is, therefore, ruled to be invalid.

Accordingly, the name Terry Jane Rudeman will not appear on the primary ballot as a candidate of the Conservative Party for the public office of Judge of the Family Court.

Very truly yours,

BOARD OF ELECTIONS

COMMISSIONERS
