RE: Deputy Clerk Heather Davis' March 4, 2019 letter
Center for Judicial Accountability, et al. v. Cuomo, et al. – Citizen-Taxpayer Action

Dear Court Attorney Dautel:

In response to Deputy Clerk Davis' March 4, 2019 letter, herewith transmitted are appellants' July 4, 2018 appeal brief and three-volume record on appeal, plus their October 4, 2018 reply brief.

Respondents' September 21, 2018 opposing brief and supplemental record on appeal are being separately furnished by Assistant Solicitor General Frederick Brodie.

By this letter, which I am e-mailing to Mr. Brodie and to his immediate superior, Assistant Solicitor General Victor Paladino, I am alerting them that my priority-mailed transmittal to the Court is expected to arrive on or about Tuesday, March 19th.

The record of appellants' four appellate motions designed to ensure the integrity of the appellate proceedings in the Appellate Division, Third Department, concealed by its December 27, 2018 Memorandum and Order, is still being reproduced and assembled. I expect it will be ready for priority mailing on Monday, March 18th.

Appellants' letter in support of their appeal of right, pursuant to Article VI, §3(b)(1) of the New York State Constitution and CPLR §5601(b)(1), is due on Thursday, March 21st – and will be express mailed on March 20th.

Thank you.
