SUBJECT: Jesse McKinley's NYT article -- "Cuomo Adopts a Middle-Class Mantra"

TO: Executive Director Brandon Muir/Reclaim New York

It would appear that you are unaware of what Jesse McKinley knows, but failed to inform you in soliciting your comment for his New York Times article "Cuomo Adopts a Middle-Class Mantra" -- to wit, that the NYS budget is "OFF the constitutional rails" and fraudulent -- and that this is chronicled by a citizen-taxpayer action in which Governor Cuomo is the first-named defendant, with an order to show cause returnable on April 28th.

The lawsuit record -- and my correspondence with Mr. McKinley, as recently as last Friday, April 7th -- is posted on the website of our non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., www.judgewatch.org, accessible via the prominent homepage link "CJA's Citizen-Taxpayer Actions to End NYS' Corrupt Budget 'Process' and Unconstitutional 'Three Men in a Room' Governance".

Please call, as soon as possible, as I would like to discuss the state budget with you -- and invite Reclaim New York to intervene in the citizen-taxpayer action.

Thank you.
