Dear Secretary Patience:

Reference is made to your below December 23, 2013 e-mail.

Surely, by now, records pertaining to retention of law firms "for purposes of legal representation and litigation against the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption", as requested by the Center for Judicial Accountability's December 16, 2013 letter, are in the Senate's possession. Surely, too, "[f]ully executed contracts exist. Kindly furnish same -- and any subsequent records relevant thereto -- forthwith.

For your convenience, our December 16, 2013 letter is attached.

Thank you.
