Oral Argument Requested

Notice of Petition for TRO,
Preliminary Injunction,
Transfer/Removal to Federal Court, Mandamus, Declaratory,
& Other Relief

a motion will be made at the Albany County Courthouse, Room 102, 16 Eagle Street, Albany, New York 12207, on Friday, July 1st, 2022, at 9:30 a.m. – with oral argument thereon for an order:

- (1) granting petitioners/plaintiffs a TRO pending a hearing on, and determination of, their entitlement to a preliminary injunction to stay Part QQ of Education, Labor, Housing, and Family Assistance Budget Bill #S.8006-C/A.9006-C – the “ethics commission reform act of 2022” – from taking effect on July 8, 2022;
- (2) granting petitioners/plaintiffs an immediate hearing on their entitlement to a preliminary injunction staying Part QQ of Education, Labor, Housing, and Family Assistance Budget Bill #S.8006-C/A.9006-C – the “ethics commission reform act of 2022” – from taking effect on July 8, 2022 – and promptly determining same;
- (3) declaring unconstitutional, unlawful, and void Part QQ of Education, Labor, Housing, and Family Assistance Budget Bill #S.8006-C/A.9006-C – the “ethics commission reform act of 2022” – enacted in violation of mandatory provisions of the New York State Constitution, statutes, legislative rules, and caselaw –and enjoining the disbursement of monies for the Commission on Ethics and Lobbying in Government it establishes;
- (4) transferring/removing this case to federal court, including pursuant to Article IV, §4 of the United States Constitution: “The United States shall guarantee every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government”, inasmuch as the justices and acting justices of the Supreme Court of Albany County – and of the 61 other counties of New York State – are divested of jurisdiction to hear the case pursuant to Judiciary Law §14 and “rule of necessity” cannot be invoked by reason thereof;
- (5) directing that the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics comply with Executive Law §§94.13(a) and (b) with respect to petitioners’ seven complaints – starting with the ministerial act of 15-day letters;
- (6) directing that the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics comply with Executive Law §94.9(1)(i) mandating that its annual reports contain “a listing by assigned number of each complaint and referral received which alleged a possible violation within its jurisdiction, including the current status of each complaint” – starting with its upcoming annual report for 2021 and such annual report as it will be rendering for 2022;
- (7) directing that Temporary Senate President Stewart-Cousins and Assembly Speaker Heastie comply with Legislative Law §80.1 and §80.4 mandating their joint appointment of the Legislative Ethics Commission’s ninth member – this being the non-legislative member that makes non-legislators its majority;

- (8) directing that the Legislative Ethics Commission comply with Legislative Law §80.7(1) pertaining to its annual reports – starting with rendering annual reports for 2020 and 2021;
- (9) directing that the New York State Inspector General comply with the mandates of Executive Law Article 4-A and its own Policy and Procedure Manual, violated by its handling of petitioners’ November 2, 2021 complaint – and declaring the provision of the Policy and Procedure Manual that allows the Inspector General to take “no action” on complaints involving “covered agencies” to be violative of Executive Law §53.1 and void;
- (10) declaring unconstitutional, unlawful, and void the FY2022-23 New York state budget, enacted in violation of mandatory provisions of the New York State Constitution, statutes, legislative rules, and caselaw;
- (11) declaring unconstitutional, unlawful, larcenous, and void Legislative/Judiciary Budget Bill #S.8001-A/A.9001-A, enacted in violation of mandatory provisions of the New York State Constitution, statutes, legislative rules, and caselaw;
- (12) declaring unconstitutional, larcenous, and void the FY2022-23 appropriations for the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct, the New York State Inspector General, the Appellate Division attorney grievance committees, and the Unified Court System’s Inspector General – based on the evidence of their flagrant corruption in handling complaints furnished by petitioners at the Legislature’s January 25, 2022 “public protection” budget hearing and again by their March 25, 2022 e-mail;
- (13) declaring unconstitutional, as written and as applied, Public Officers Law §108.2(b), violating Article III, §10 of the New York State Constitution and legislative rules consistent therewith, by exempting the Legislature from the Open Meetings Law to enable it to discuss “public business” in closed-door party conferences, rather than openly in committees and on the Senate and Assembly floor;
- (14) granting such other and further relief as may be just and proper and, specifically:
 - (a) an order directing respondent/defendant Attorney General James to identify:
 - (i) that a determination has been made, pursuant to Executive Law §63.1 as to the “interest of the state” herein; and
 - (ii) that a determination has been made that she can ethically, lawfully, and constitutionally represent her fellow respondents/defendants herein, where she is a party with direct financial and other interests, as in the

March 5, 2021 complaint filed with JCOPE against her (Exhibit D to the verified petition/complaint);

- (b) an order – in the event the Court denies transfer/removal to federal court – certifying the issue to the Appellate Division, Third Department and/or the Court of Appeals for determination;
- (c) an order referring respondents/defendants to the Public Integrity Section of the U.S. Department of Justice’s Criminal Division for investigation and prosecution of their public corruption, obliterating constitutional, lawful governance and stealing taxpayer monies, documentarily-established by petitioners’ interrelated complaints to the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics, to the Legislative Ethics Commission, to the New York State Inspector General, to the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct, to the Appellate Division attorney grievance committees, and to the Unified Court System’s Inspector General, among other ethics oversight and enforcement entities;
- (d) $100 motion costs to petitioners/plaintiffs pursuant to CPLR §8202.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, pursuant to CPLR §2214(b), answering papers are to be served on petitioners/plaintiffs two days before the return date, to wit, July 29, 2022, via NYSCEF.

Dated: White Plains, New York
