TO: Counsel to the Senate Majority,

Pursuant to §9 of your above-attached "Rules and Regulations Relating to the Public Inspection and Copying of Legislative Records", sent to me by the below November 2nd e-mail of Senate Records Access Officer Alejandra Paulino, I hereby appeal its response, directing me to the Senate's webpage for the November 1st oversight hearing on Family Court: <https://www.nysenate.gov/calendar/public-hearings/november-01-2023/joint-public-hearing-conduct-oversight-family-court>.

The basis of the appeal is as follows: There is NO posting on that Senate webpage of what my October 26th FOIL request had requested, to wit:

- (1) the witness list for the November 1st hearing that, allegedly, had "already [been] finalized" by October 26th; and
- (2) "records reflecting the persons/entities" invited to testify at the November 1st hearing by the Senate Judiciary Committee and/or Senate Committee on Children and Families.

Indeed, the Senate webpage does not even post the witness list used by Senators Hoylman and Brisport at the November 1st hearing, organized into panels. For your convenience, in addition to the link, above-attached is a screenshot of the Senate's webpage showing what is posted beneath the VIDEO of the hearing.

Thank you.
