Subject: YET AGAIN: CJA's Feb. 11, 2021 Attorney Misconduct Complaint vs NY Attorney General Letitia James & NY Solicitor General Barbara Underwood

TO: First Department Attorney Grievance Committee

I have received no response to my below July 7th e-mail to you regarding my February 11th complaint against Attorney General Letitia James and Solicitor General Barbara Underwood. Haven't you – by now – sent the complaint to them for their responses? And why have you not sent those responses to me for reply? Isn't that the normal and customary procedure when you "investigate" a complaint?

Please advise without further delay, furnishing me, as well, with the two docket numbers you have assigned for the complaint against each of them.

Please also advise why, on September 29th, your Administrative Assistant, Celina M. Nelson, sent me three e-mails, apprising me that because three attorneys, Frederick Brodie, Esq. \("Docket No. 2021.0846"\), Christopher Liberati-Conant, Esq. \("Docket No. 2021.0845"\), and Helena Lynch, Esq. \("Docket No. 2021.0847"\) are not within your geographic jurisdiction, you, therefore, would be taking "no further action" on my "complaint" against them, when:

- (1) the unidentified "complaint" – that of February 11th – had not been filed with you against these three attorneys for that very reason;
- (2) there was no basis for your assigning to these three attorneys docket numbers for a February 11th complaint I had never filed with you against them; and
- (3) there was no need for you to inform me that you did not have jurisdiction over them because – as clear from my February 11th complaint (fn. 1) and your complaint form, which I had completed -- I knew that already.
