TO: NEW YORK STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Already sent via the Commission's website (<https://www.nyscjcforms.com/>) is my above attached November 24, 2021 conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint vs the Commission's 4 judge members: (1) Appellate Division, First Department Justice Angela M. Mazzarelli; (2) Appellate Division, Second Department Justice Robert J. Miller; (3) Court of Claims Judge/Acting Supreme Court Justice Fernando M. Camacho; and (4) Brighton Town Court Justice John A. Falk.

It additionally seeks other relief: (1) Reconsideration of the Commission's dismissal of CJA's February 7, 2021 judicial misconduct complaint, as provided for by the Commission's Policy Manual §2.12; and (2) Determination of CJA's April 26, 2021 "further and supplementing complaint", consistent with the Commission's Policy Manual §2.1.

This new judicial misconduct complaint is posted on CJA's website, here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/cjc/nov-24-21-complaint-vs-judge-members.htm>.

Thank you.

on that date – and then, on February 12, 2021, priority mailed (#9505514189661043469615) as a superseding, more expanded complaint, enclosing with it CJA's reinforcing February 11, 2021 attorney misconduct complaint to New York's attorney grievance committees, to which the Commission was an indicated recipient.

According to the USPS tracking receipt, it was delivered on February 16, 2021. Above-attached are the tracking receipt and the superseding February 7, 2021 complaint with its two exhibits. The
