TO: NEW YORK STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

I have still received no acknowledgment or other communication from you concerning CJA's February 7, 2021 conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint against NY's Court of Appeals judges, et al. – about which I sent you the below April 2nd e-mail. Is there a problem?

Please advise.

Thank you.

Subject: Feb. 7, 2021 conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint vs NY's 7 Court of Appeals judges, 7 justices of its Appellate Division/Third Dept, & Chief Administrative Judge Marks

TO: NEW YORK STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

RE: Conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint against the six associate judges of the New York Court of Appeals; against the presiding justice of the Appellate Division, Third Department and six of its associate justices; and against New York Chief Judge Janet DiFiore and Chief Administrative Judge Lawrence Marks pertaining to the citizen-taxpayer action Center for Judicial Accountability, et al. v. Cuomo...Schneiderman...DiFiore, challenging their commission-based pay raises, the Judiciary budget, and other corruption of state governance of which they are beneficiaries

I have received no acknowledgment of CJA's above-entitled February 7, 2021 judicial misconduct complaint that I filed with the Commission, via its website (<https://www.nyscjcforms.com/>) on that date – and then, on February 12, 2021, priority mailed (#9505514189661043469615) as a superseding, more expanded complaint, enclosing with it CJA's reinforcing February 11, 2021 attorney misconduct
