Good morning,

Over the last few months, our unit has been restructured. We are now the Police Accountability Unit focusing exclusively on police misconduct and law enforcement matters.

We are not able to address your concern. I will forward your email to the appropriate DANY Unit and hopefully someone will be in contact with you soon.

TO: New York County District Attorney Cyrus Vance, Jr.

This follows media reports that – based on Attorney General James' August 3, 2021 report of Governor Cuomo's "sexual harassment" – you have requested that she furnish you with underlying investigative materials pertaining to acts committed in Manhattan so that you can determine whether they might support crimes by the Governor for you to prosecute.

This request was apparently sua sponte on your part, no complaint having been filed with you.

By contrast, it is now 14 months since I filed with you my above-attached June 9, 2020 grand jury/public corruption complaint, by the below June 9, 2020 e-mail, thereafter re-sending it to you at least four more times, by the below June 11, 2020 e-mail, the below July 29, 2020 e-mail, the above-attached September 8, 2020 e-mail, and the below September
