Dear Julie --

Much appreciate your prompt response.

I will wait patiently to hear from you. It won't take you long, however, to see that the extraordinary story that is before you UPENDS and makes competitive the 2018 elections for governor, attorney general, comptroller & all legislative seats. Indeed, nothing more is needed than for you to watch the VIDEOS of my testimony at the Legislature's budget hearings -- the first of which was my February 6, 2013 testimony before then Senate Finance Committee Chairman DeFrancisco, which itself suffices. The VIDEOS, with the dispositive EVIDENCE I handed up or referred in testifying, is ALL accessible from CJA's menu webpage for the "2018 Legislative Session", here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2018-legislature/menu-2018-legislative-session.htm>.

I am available at night and over the weekend. Call me on Friday or when you are able, after you have watched the VIDEOS and reviewed my March 29th e-mail to the legislative press corps -- and its four attachments. I invite Messrs. Weiner, Lohmann, Baker to also call me -- as NONE of you can properly report on the 2018 elections and on NYS governance issues, without questioning the statewide and legislative incumbents and challengers about the lawsuits and corruption and ethics complaints that criminal and ethics authorities are "sitting on" -- and about which I testified at the January 30, 2018 and February 5, 2018 budget hearings.

Thank you.

Elena

Hi Ms. Sassower,

Thank you for your multiple messages. I will review these materials you have sent along and call you back. You are welcome to consider me your contact at The Post-Standard to avoid having all of us respond individually to your request. I will let you know whether we are interested in pursuing the story you are suggesting. FYI, I am not certain when I'll be able to get back to you. I'm going to be busy with an assignment for most of the day tomorrow.

If you are interested in reaching out to our editorial board or writing an opinion piece, you can contact letters@syracuse.com.
