Following up on your participation last fall – and that of your sister, Amy --in the symposium on “Telling the Truth in a Post-Truth World”, how can we find journalists to investigate and report on the below, politically-explosive story? Can you help – including by forwarding it to Amy, for whom I cannot find an e-mail on the Democracy Now website.

Thank you.

What's happening behind-the-scenes of tonight's debate between Democratic candidates for attorney general?

Below is the e-mail, sent this morning, to all four Democratic attorney general candidates, calling upon them to refute the EVIDENCE of their brazen lies & distortion of the attorney general's constitutional function. The explicating e-mail sent two days ago to debate co-moderators Errol Louis and Liz Benjamin of Spectrum News is beneath it – and below it, two prior e-mails to them, all with the above three attachments.

All four e-mails – and the EVIDENCE in substantiation – are posted on the Center for Judicial Accountability's webpage entitled: “The Posturing Liars who are the Four Attorney General Candidates for the Democratic Party Line”. The direct link is here:
<http://www.judgewidth.org/web-pages/elections/challengers/democrat-ag-candidates.htm>.

Please do your part to discharge your own constitutional function to investigate and inform the public – and forward this to your TOP editors for their review and evaluation.

Subject: Follow-up: "Financing Identity...": $ is NOT the problem

The below was sent ten minutes ago via your contact feature.

I am director & co-founder of a non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (www.judgewidth.org)

I have a mountain of primary source documentary evidence germane to Andrew Sorota's October 8th article: "Financing Identity: The Future of the Democratic Establishment": <http://thepolitic.org/financing-identity-the-future-of-the-democratic-establishment/>.

The situation is different than he described. $ is NOT the problem. Will he be writing further on the NY political scene? Who else at Yale Politic is writing on politics -- and, even more importantly, how the media reports on politics and government. Among other things, there is a real "fake news" problem going on.

I can be reached at 914-421-1200.

Thank you.
