Attachments: 8-10-17-open-ltr.pdf

Following our phone conversation, for which I thank you, below is my e-mail to you, sent on Sunday night, pertaining to your February 24th column "GOP mired in indifference".

As discussed, what is happening behind-the-scenes in the Republican and Conservative Parties is NOT "indifference", but conflict of interest. Republican and Conservative leadership cannot bring down Democrats Cuomo, Schneiderman, and DiNapoli – without also bringing down Republican legislative incumbents, such as DeFrancisco.

The three VIDEOS, essential to your understanding the situation are:

--- the VIDEO of my testimony before DeFrancisco, at the Legislature's February 6, 2013 budget hearing – posted, with the EVIDENCE I handed up, in support, here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/elections/2017/feb-6-2013-testimony-evidence.htm> --which, as reflected by the below, NYS Republican Party Chair Cox and his county chairs have had for SIX WEEKS;

-- the VIDEOS of my testimony at the Legislature's budget hearings this year – on January 29, 2018 and February 5, 2018 – updating where we're at... -- posted, with the EVIDENCE, I handed up, in support, here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2018-legislature/menu-2018-legislative-session.htm>

These three VIDEOS of my testimony – 30 minutes, collectively -- suffice to BLOW OPEN THIS YEAR'S ELECTIONS...

When do you think you'll be able to view them? I will call you on Thursday.

Thank you.

RE: Your February 24, 2018 article "GOP mired in indifference".

You characterize as "curious" the "widespread indifference" and "lack of genuine enthusiasm among Republicans" about the race for governor – including DeFrancisco's nomination. You use that same word – "curious" -- to describe "the lack of any interest in 'down ballot' positions on the GOP slate – lieutenant
