My story never gave any impression of Schneiderman as a corruption fighter. That was his contention – not mine.

My advice to you – stay tuned. Lots more to come.

TO: Robert McCarthy/Buffalo News

Following up my voice mail message for you (716-849-5593) this morning -- occasioned by your March 2nd article "Analysis: Maziarz' plea means full story will never be told": <http://buffalonews.com/2018/03/02/analysis-maziarz-plea-means-the-full-story-will-never-be-told/>, which gives the appearance, both by your commentary and from Attorney General Schneiderman's quoted comments, that he is a corruption fighter.

Investigation would doubtless establish that if Schneiderman had had a legitimate case against Maziarz to begin with, he would NOT have agreed to Maziarz pleading to a misdemeanor and his case against Ortz would NOT have been tossed. In any event, I can tell you – from direct, first-hand experience with Schneiderman, going back to the days he was in the Senate – and on the Senate Judiciary Committee – and from July 2011 onward as Attorney General, that he is a posturer and utterly corrupt. Indeed, his corruption is the reason he was a named defendant in CJA's declaratory judgment action, brought in 2012, and then in our two citizen-taxpayer actions, commenced in 2014 and 2016. In all three he was the attorney for himself and his fellow defendants – and he corrupted each with litigation fraud because he had NO legitimate defense, either for himself or his co-defendants to ANY of the causes of action.

It would appear that you did not examine the below election webpage I furnished you pertaining to Schneiderman, laying out the open-and-shut, prima facie, EVIDENCE, chronologically – including my fully-documented corruption and ethics complaints against him that criminal and disciplinary authorities have been "sitting on". Here it is, again: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/elections/2018/schneiderman.htm> – and here's the direct link to my September 16, 2017 conflict-of-interest/misconduct complaint against Schneiderman, filed with the Attorney Disciplinary Committees: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/citizen-taxpayer-action/complaints-notice/9-16-17-attorney-disciplinary-complaint.htm> – which I referenced and handed up when I testified at the Legislature's January 30, 2018 "public protection" budget hearing.
