Subject: Will The New York Times report on evidence supporting President Trump's claim that Manhattan D.A. Vance's investigation & grand jury proceedings concerning him are "politically motivated"? How about NYC's other press?

Dear Mr. Consovoy,

Below is the e-mail I sent to your law firm's generic e-mail address because your receptionist told me she could not furnish me with an e-mail for you or any other person at your firm – and because I received no return call or e-mail from you, in response to my voice mail message. It was only as I was posting the below e-mail on CJA's website, here – and wanted to accompany the posting with your law firm bio, that I discovered that the bio posts your e-mail.

Kindly forward my below e-mail to Jay Sekulow, for whom I was also unable to obtain or find an e-mail address, including upon calling, twice, the American Center for Law and Justice. Also, President Trump's other lawyers – most especially Rudolph Giuliani, for whom I also could not find an e-mail address. I would additionally appreciate if Mr. Sekulow and/or Mr. Giuliani – both of whom have recently appeared on FOX News – forwarded my e-mail to FOX News, as I have been unable to find any e-mail address for it or its journalists.

I am available to answer any questions – including as to my interactions with New York's corruption-abetting, election-rigging "fake news" press, spanning more than 30 years – as to which CJA's website, www.judgewidth.org, posts a mountain of EVIDENCE, accessible from the left-side panel "Press Suppression", including a lawsuit against The New York Times, seeking to recognize a cause of action for "journalistic fraud", which should be of particular interest.

Thank you.
