Dear Judy,

Thank you for your e-mail acknowledgment that you will pass on my message to Nicole Gelinas regarding her article "Creepy – and Corrupt".

So that she can have a better sense of the situation indicated by my message, below, with the above-attached, is what I just sent to CNBC. Kindly pass it on to her – and to other relevant experts at the Manhattan Institute, including Thomas Hogan, as it bears DIRECTLY on his June 29th article "What Will Alvin Bragg Mean for Manhattan?"

Thank you.

Subject: REALITY-CHECK: The D.A. investigations of Cuomo for "sexual harassment"

TO: CNBC –

RE: "Albany DA criminally investigating Cuomo, asks 'any victim' of New York governor sexual harassment to contact office" (August 3, 2021, Dan Mangan/Christina Wilkie)
"Manhattan, Westchester, Nassau DAs ask for evidence from Cuomo sex harassment probe" (August 4, 2021 Kevin Brueninger).

Your above two articles report that four D.A.s are piling on to investigate and prosecute Governor Cuomo for "sexual harassment". Do you think Cuomo's so-called "sexual harassment" is more worthy of investigation, prosecution – and impeachment -- than prima facie, open-and-shut evidence of his fraud and larceny involving the ENTIRETY of the state budget and the pay raises it embeds?
