How disappointing to have received no response from The Daily Caller to my below e-mail, with the above attachment, sent yesterday at 3:57 p.m. – other than an automated message, at 3:58 p.m., from Tucker Carlson's e-mail, bearing the subject line "Off Email", which read: "Thanks for your message. This email is no longer in use."

Assuredly, you have a current e-mail address for Daily Caller Co-Founder Carlson. Kindly forward this e-mail to him for his own assessment of the situation – and remove his "no longer in use" email address from his webpage.

Thank you.
