TO: Jonathan Alpert

This responds to your excellent guest column in The Hill, “It wasn’t socialism that won for Mamdani. It was emotionalism.”

What also “won for Mamdani” is the corruption of lawful, constitutional NYS governance, of which Mamdani has been part since he became an assemblyman in January 2021, abetted by knowingly false, election-rigging journalism by NYS’ press that has manipulated the public and kept voters clueless as to what has been going on – and who’s to blame.

You can readily discern this from my below e-mail to the New York Daily News, sent a short while ago, and from my recent e-mails to The New York Times & New York Post, posted here, whose evidentiary links are prima facie and dispositive.

Please forward this e-mail to The Hill and other press for investigative reporting on the catastrophic press-created situation that now prevails in the NYC mayoralty race and beyond. Also, to scholars.

I would be happy to speak with you and answer your questions. Feel free to call me, no matter how early or late.

Thank you.

Subject: NYC ELECTIONS: Will you be reporting on Mamdani's corruption as a NYS assemblyman, starting with his pocketing of fraudulent pay raises for himself -- &, likewise, the corruption of NYS Senator Hoylman-Sigal, & other Democratic primary winners?

TO: NEW YORK DAILY NEWS

Managing Editor Robert Dominguez

NYC Politics/Election Reporter David Cruz

NYC Politics/City Hall Reporter Chris Sommerfeldt

NYC Politics/City Hall Reporter Josephine Stratman

Will you be reporting on Mamdani's corruption as a NYS assemblyman – starting with his pocketing of pay raises for himself that he knew to be fraudulent? The EVIDENCE is furnished by my March 14th e-mail to Mamdani entitled “ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY”, which opened as follows.

“Elections are a time of accountability. Based on your on-the-job performance as a state assemblyman, why do you believe yourself fit to be mayor of New York City – or for any office of public trust?”.

Mamdani did not respond – and I sent him the March 14th e-mail a second time, with a supplement, by a March 17th email, and then a third time, when I cc'd him on my March 18th e-mail to the roster of reporters of the Legislative Correspondents Association, and then a fourth time, when I cc'd him on my March 20th e-mail to you, The New York Times, New York Post, New York Law Journal, Wall Street Journal, and Associated Press.

Will you be getting Mamdani's response to my March 14th “ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY” e-mail? Isn't it obvious that it – and his votes, seven weeks later, approving the FY2025-26 state budget bills – establish that he cannot be elected NYC mayor because he must be indicted for larceny and corruption – and that he will be convicted? Why don't you confirm that fact with former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York Jim Walden, running for mayor as an Independent candidate, with an anti-corruption policy platform featured on his campaign website. By the way, are you aware that Mamdani's campaign website contains no anti-corruption platform?

Also, will you be reporting on the corruption of other NYC Democratic primary winners, such as NYS Senator Brad Hoylman-Sigal, running for Manhattan borough president. The EVIDENCE of his corruption is furnished by my March 16th e-mail to him, likewise entitled “ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY...” – part of my March 20th e-mail to you to which both Mamdani and Hoylman-Sigal were cc'd.

Finally, if it is not your intention to report on the open-and-shut, prima facie EVIDENCE of the corruption of Mamdani, Hoylman-Sigal, and other NYC Democratic primary winners that you enabled – incumbents NYC Public Advocate Jumanne Williams, Manhattan D.A. Alvin Bragg, and Brooklyn D.A. Eric Gonzalez topping the list – please forward this e-mail to Daily News legal counsel and ownership, consistent with what my April 18th e-mail to you requested in furnishing you with my March 20th e-mail a second time.

Please advise, promptly – as TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE, obviously. I am available to answer questions and will meanwhile phone in “News Tips to City Desk: 212-210-NEWS”.

Thank you.
