Following up our phone conversation, enclosed, for your convenience, are the last pages of CJA's May 22, 2003 and May 28, 2003 memos to Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Hatch, Ranking Member Leahy, Home-State Senators Schumer and Clinton, and Senator Chambliss requesting that our written submissions be INCLUDED in the printed record of the Senate Judiciary Committee's proceedings on Judge Wesley's nomination. Have they been? The person to speak with is Kurt Carroll, who does not return my calls.

My most recent call to Mr. Carroll was a voice mail message for him on Thursday, December 30, 2004 (at 3:10 p.m), asking when the Senate Judiciary Committee will finally send us the "publicly-accessible" documents pertaining to the qualifications of Second Circuit judicial nominees which we repeatedly requested? This was the same question that I asked, in person, on December 23, 2004, when I went directly to the Senate Judiciary Committee following my release from CTF. I spoke with Barr Huefner, a clerk, to whom I provided a copy of CJA's May 28, 2004 and June 24, 2004 memos.

Thank you for making this important contribution by your story...

P.S. Also, FYI, pages 255-257 of the trial transcript regarding the presence of the marshals. Judge Holeman stops the U.S. Attorney from even responding, before ruling.
